

California Public-Safety Radio Association

Installation of Officers Script

- Will the officers-elect please come to the front?

(Pause while all officers line up in order of succession)

- You have been duly elected to the office you are about to enter by a vote of the Chapter membership.
- By this vote, the quorum has invested in you the power of the Association. It bestows on you its confidence and its trust and places in your hands the duties of your office as written in the constitution and by-laws of this chapter of APCO.
- Please raise your right hand.
- Do you, under God, under Country, and before these witnesses here assembled, each and every one of you, hereby accept this power, this responsibility, this confidence, this trust, this establishment of duties, and solemnly swear to uphold, protect and execute to the best of your ability the aims and objectives of the California Public-Safety Radio Association as well as those of APCO International?

(Call each officer by name and ask for an "I do" response)
